

Create a LATEX document in overleaf (“example project”):

- Add the figure plot1.png
- Add another figure of your choice for the universe
- Add the references from references.tex
- Your document should look like Lab Session 2 document, ie “referencedocument.pdf”
- Don’t worry about where things end up on page. The image locations may end up in different pages in your own document in comparison to the reference document.